The Easter bunny will be all but forgotten by the time this column goes to press, but at this point I am very much involved with last-minute sewing and other preparations, so please forgive the brevity this week. Pauline Doyle had an Easter breakfast to entertain Leonard's mother, Mrs. Buckles, and his two brothers from Redondo Beach.

Still Time to Start in Textile Painting Classes

Those who had no opportunity to start in the textile painting classes conducted at Vermont Supply, 809 Gardena boulevard, will be able to do so any time during the coming week.

A number of enthusiasts of this art started in a beginner's class yesterday, and any others interested should enroll for the Wednesday weekly classes at this time.

Information may be obtained by telephoning ME 41535 or calling at the Vermont Supply. Instruction is provided for a nominal fee.

The Slidebothams on Doris Way had an Easter egg hunt for the children in the neighborhood. . . . Carl and Marie Larkins entertained 24 relatives with brunch at noon on Easter Sunday. Marie's mother, Mrs. Estelle Jacobs, was there, and the other guests were Carl's family. The table was lovely with a centerpiece of iris and daffodils and a corsage at each place and, of course, many colorful Easter eggs.

Mr. and Mrs. William Scanlan almost had to cancel their Easter day plans when their young son, Gregory, had a most unfortunate accident last Friday. He was rushed to the hospital for emergency treatment when he ran an angle iron into his throat, cutting the palate very badly. We're happy to report that Gregory is recovering nicely and Bill and Faye had their dinner party as planned with relatives from Los Angeles as their guests.

The state PTA convention in San Francisco this Wednesday, Thursday and Friday will keep our two Seaside representatives more than busy. President-elect Mrs. Loren Edmund and First Vice-President-elect Mrs. Robert O. Mease left Tuesday to return until late at night they will attend conferences, lectures, banquets. They will come home exhausted but more than satisfied that their time was well spent.

The sunrise service at Palos Verdes was attended by several people from Seaside. Bill and Helen Schmitz took Heidi and Wendy and Margaret Roettger and her two children, Carol and Timmy. Paul stayed home to prepare breakfast for all of them after the service. Several members of Los Caneberos were in the choir—from Seaside, Elodie Pearson and Wynn and Bud Mewborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Watts entertained a group of friends last Friday evening showing films of the Miami-Nassau race taken by Kenneth last February. Also shown were films of the Honolulu race taken aboard the "Morning Star." Enjoying these magnificent pictures were Mr. and Mrs. Alex Rosin, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Horne, Mr. Chuck Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Spick, Maj. and Mrs. Ryan, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roettger.

Last January, Ruth Hanover's brother, Bill Buley, spent a 10-day leave in Los Angeles. He was evidently very favorably impressed because immediately after his discharge from the Navy this month, Bill left his home in Boston and is now another Calamania. He is living with Frank and Ruth for the time being.

Here and There . . . Mary Jane and Gene Miller dining royally at the Sportsman's Lodge this week. Helen Carlton, Dorothy Hurford and Margaret Roettger lunching at Welch's last Friday. Doty, Haegle and son, Dougie, INSPECTOR . . . Henry Berkowitz, the area's newest Kelvinator dealer, takes stock of his sparkling white Kelvinator display model now being shown at the Burke's Bargain Spot, Torrance Blvd. and Cravens Ave. Although the Kelvinator dealership is new for Berkowitz, he's by no means a newcomer to the Torrance shopping area.

spending a week in Needles visiting her sister, Mrs. Lewis Lacey, Frankie Barth and daughter, Sharon, spending two days in Palm Springs. Sharon went on to San Francisco for a week's visit. That's it for this week, neighbors!

Little Miss Leslie Pomeroy celebrated her sixth birthday on April 10. Her next-door neighbor, Beverly Mease, made all the favors, planned the games and prizes and even baked the birthday cake. Leslie's guests were Karen Faye, Gail Rowan, Heidi and Wendy Schmitz, and her sister, Chris.
